GENERAL INFORMATION

PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

Please take proper precautions in suspending or supporting your work. Artwork intended to be framed must be securely framed and wired and ready for hanging. Two-dimensional work not intended to be framed must also be ready to hang. Clamped glass as a method of framing is not acceptable. Sculpture and three-dimensional entries must be accompanied by a sturdy, stable pedestal.

SALES (Juried & Members' Shows)

The artist receives 60% of the purchase price. Mark your label with price. No POR (price on request) listings will be accepted. No pricing changes will be allowed after receipt of entries.

South Shore Art Center Arts Festival is supported, in part, by grants from the towns of Abington, Cohasset, Duxbury, Hanover, Hanson, Hingham, Hull, Marshfield, Norwell, Rockland and Scituate, as well as local agencies which are supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

LIABILITY

All due care will be exercised in handling work submitted. As long as the presentation of the artwork is carefully prepared, the SSAC will accept responsibility for damage to work submitted. Entry in the South Shore Art Center Arts Festival constitutes acceptance of all rules and regulations as stated in the call for entries. The South Shore Art Center will not be responsible for work not removed at the time indicated. Regrettably, storage beyond the pick-up hour is unavailable.
